DEMANDED A TRIAL.

Proved to Be More Expensive Than the Original Terms.

Not satisfied with the action of the recorder's court in declaring forfeited his bail of $5, Ray W. Willetts, arrested for disorderly conduct, appeared before the police justice and demanded a trial. He got it, was found guilty and fined $10.

Willetts, under the familiar court name of John Doe, created a rough house in a Chinese noodle joint and was proceeding to purge the place of its heathen proprietor, when the police arrived and took him to jail. He put up $5 for his appearance in court but when his name was read from the docket he was not there.

C. A. REESE DEAD

IN CIGAR BUSINESS IN PENDLETON FOR 11 YEARS.

Sold Out to Badley & Zehner in 1900 and Went to Couer d'Alene City—Has Suffered From Stomach Trouble—Left Here Friday Morning, November 11, Attended Lodge Saturday Night, Became Suddenly Ill and Died Wednesday After Being Unconscious for Three Days—Was Well Known and Popular Here—Little Known of His Relatives.

Charles A. Reese who for 11 years, from 1889 to 1900, was engaged in the cigar store business in this city, died suddenly at Couer d'Alene City, Idaho, Wednesday, November 16, after suffering for several years with what appeared to be cancer of the stomach.

Mr. Reese came to Pendleton in 1889, and started a cigar store in a building which stood where the Hasbrouck jewelry store is now located. He removed from there to a place near where the Gratz restaurant is now conducted and in 1895 moved into the new brick erected on Main street between Alta and Court, by Jacob Betz, where he conducted a cigar store until 1900, when he sold out to Badley & Zehner, and went to Couer d'Alene City, where he has since resided.

He left no known relatives, and while he had many friends and was a genial man and very popular, little is known of him. He came from Colfax to this city and it is thought he came from Murillo, Iowa, to Colfax. He has been suffering with stomach trouble for a number of years, and when here a week ago, he was doctoring with Dr. N. Y. Blalock, of Walla Walla.

He spent several days in the city, a guest of Hotel St. George, the first of November, leaving here Friday morning, November 11, for his home, where he became much worse, being unconscious for the last three days of his illness. He contemplated a trip to Hot Lake, while here, and talked with his friend, Pete Smith, of Hotel St. George, about it, but finally decided to go home instead.

Very little is known of him in Couer d'Alene City. George Williams, of that place has written to T. C. Taylor, of this city, that Mr. Reese was a member of the Masonic fraternity, he having become a member since leaving here, and inquiring for information as to his relatives and business affairs. Mr. Taylor is making diligent inquiry, but very little is known of Mr. Reese's affairs.

He is highly spoken of by those who remember him. He has paid occasional visits to the city, since leaving here, and was always very much attached to the city and his old friends here.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30, under the auspices of Kootenai Lodge No. 24, A. F. and A. M., from St. Luke's Episcopal church, Couer d'Alene City.

He arrived home Saturday from this city, attended his lodge Saturday night, became suddenly worse and went to bed Sunday, becoming unconscious before any particulars of his life or relatives could be learned.

THE POTWINE ARE WELL.

Letter From Former Rector of the Church of the Redeemer Says the Islands Are Delightful.

The East Oregonian has received a personal letter from Rev. W. E. Potwine, for 22 years rector of the Church of the Redeemer of this city, in which he says the family is well and enjoying, in the fullest degree, the delightful climate of the Sandwich Islands.

Mr. Potwine's work is of a missionary nature and is well suited to his tastes. He works among the Japanese, Chinese and native Hawaiians, and finds a novelty and diversion in this kind of religious labor that is especially pleasing to him.

He says that Miss Ethel Parsons, formerly of this city, but who has been in the Philippines visiting her brother for the past two years, passed through Honolulu last week on the transport Thomas, bound for Portland, where she will reside in future with her sister, Mrs. William House.

DIP GOODMAN CATTLE.

Dr. M. S. Lantz, Superintending the Dipping of Well Known Herd Today.

Dr. M. S. Lantz, government livestock inspector, left this morning for Hudson Bay, where he will superintend the dipping of the thoroughbred herd of cattle belonging to W. S. Goodman, for symptoms of the scab. This is one of the finest herds of Shorthorn cattle in the inland Empire, and while it has been threatened with the scab, it has been thought best by Dr. Lantz and Mr. Goodman to dip the entire herd thoroughly, to make sure of its good health. Extensive preparations have been made at the Hudson Bay farm to dip the cattle and the task will be completed in a short time.

TRADE WAS GOOD.

Excursionists Take Advantage of Pendleton Bargains.

If 150 people came to Pendleton yesterday on the merchants' excursion train, it is safe to say that fully 1500 bundles were carried back on the same train, in the evening.

Merchants experienced a lively trade all day the stores being filled with interested patrons, many of whom had never traded in this city before.

One noticeable feature of the excursion was the large number of people who came over from Walla Walla especially to visit friends. This feature of the train will be one of the most important, as it will invite a closer association between the people of the two cities.

Pendleton people have hundreds of relatives living in Walla Walla who will be glad to take advantage of this train to run over for a day, when they are able to return the same evening.

People from Milton, Freewater, Weston, Athena and Adams who were personally interested, were glad of the opportunity to spend a full day in the county seat and it is safe to say that more odds and ends of business were transacted in Pendleton by outside people yesterday than in any one day in many years.

By next Wednesday it is hoped the train will be thoroughly advertised and the patronage will be increased.

STANDARD MINE SOLD.

Valuable Quartzburg Property Transferred to the Killen-Warner-Stewart Company of Sumpter.

The W. E. Davidson Mining Broker Company of this city, has just closed one of the largest mining deals made this season in the Sumpter district.

By this deal the Killen-Stewart-Warner company becomes the principal owner in the Standard mine, in which Zoeth Houser of this county, is also largely interested. The mine is situated in the Quartzburg district and is one of the best properties in that entire district, from all present indications.

The Davidson company transferred to the Killen-Warner-Stewart company all stock held by Cleaver Brothers, formerly of this city, and John S. Hughes, of Prairie City, the original locator of the mines.

The consideration for this interest was $40,000 and gives the new purchasers a controlling interest in the mine. The property is capitalized at $5,000,000 and work has been in progress on it for over two years.

The new owners will pursue the same energetic plans for its development as has been pursued by Mr. Houser in the past. Mr. Houser retains his interest and will probably spend the winter at the mine.

"NOTEWORTHY INSTITUTION."

Judge Ellis so Characterizes the Stubblefield Home.

State Circuit Judge W. R. Ellis returned yesterday evening from Walla Walla, where he delivered the principal address at the dedication and opening of the Stubblefield home. The home is for indigent widows and homeless orphans.

"The home," said Judge Ellis, "is beautifully located and I believe will prove to be a very noteworthy institution. At present it is capable of accommodating about 20 persons and I understand that before the first of the year it will be filled.

"My audience for the most part consisted of elderly men and women—pioneers of the country. The need and value of the home made possible by the late Joseph Stubblefield, is attracting widespread attention, and it may be that his act may cause others to contribute to the cause."

ECHO BEETS TO LA GRANDE.

Carload of 100,000 Pounds Passed Through Over the O. R. & N. Today.

A carload of 100,000 pounds of sugar beets from the C. R. Lisle farm, near Echo, passed through on No. 24 today, to the factory at La Grande. The beets were smooth and finely formed and show every sign of producing a high sugar percentage. They were of uniform size and well proportioned and were not inferior in appearance to the best crops grown in the Grand Ronde beet belt.

This is about the last of the crop from Echo, and will be among the last carloads to arrive at the factory as the harvest in Grand Ronde is about over.
